originally a minor inam in the temple khata which was resumed & given during the Inam settlement owing to the dis-repaired condition of the temple and the discontinuance of service, might be re-granted as inam to the temple. The Dy. Commr, Mysore Distt, to whom the petitions were referred, has submitted a report which explains the facts of the case in detail.

(Paper under disposal)

The minor inam land in question was resumed to Govt during the Inam Settlement, the benefit of which was added to Jodi Chandahalli village. In the year Sadharana, the joddar Mr. Krishnaswami Aiyr made the khata of the land in the name of the Devasthanam and has been receiving jodi and local cess thereon since that year. The above land together with another land has been sold by the joddar to Muddubasavaiah, lessee of the land and another Byrayiah. The joddar complains that one of the vendees clandestinely substituted the inam land instead of his own land; and is willing either to refund the sale amount

There is no doubt that this land was constituted the temple Inam and Seime resumed and added on to the Jodidar's estate vide extract from the Inam Register.

Sept 4)

The land was leased out to Muddu Basavi for eight years by the Jodidar's guardian and in the latter assuming management he seems to have transferred the Inam to the temple on 16th Feb 1911 as is evidenced by the entry in the Khatavani and in the Patta.

Sept 2 & 3)

Subsequently there was a sale transaction between the Jodidar and the lessee Muddu Basavi conjointly into Shanbogue Dyavidi and this main land forms one of the 5 nos sold. The Jodidar explains that this land was introduced into the deed fraudulently and that he is willing to substitute another piece of land or return the Consideration the Govt and its terms may perhaps throw some light upon the contested points. The sale is alleged to have taken place on 10th July 1911. The possession after land after Respts is explained after fact that the lease of the land in favour of one of them was still current.

The question for decision between the parties is merely a simple one viz whether or not at the time after sale, the Govt possessed rights of property in the land. In other words whether the transfer after land to the temple and issue of patta constituted a valid gift to the temple.

This is a matter which may be left to the proper Civil Courts, parties in the Civil Court, particularly as the subject matter is not recognised as temple Inam. Further the Judicial himself may move for cancellation after Sale deed on the score of fraud

Sir,

With reference to your C. R. No. 2461 dated 18th March 1914 forwarding for report with records petition from P Shanmugam Archak of the Sri Hanumantha rayaswami temple at Jodi Chandahalli in the Malavally Taluk, I have the honor to submit herewith the entire records received from the Amildar of Malavalli with his report No. 86 dated 1st April 1914, and to state as follows:— 79 Y

Maji No. 127, dry land measuring 6 Kolagas and 1/4th mana as per Jari account of 1830, with a Jodi 0—14— plus local cess amia as per entry in the patta granted for the year in 1910—11 in the name of the endowed to the temple as Inam

Inam Register of 1805 79 X
is contained in the file of records herewith enclosed.)

At the time of the Inam settlement, as the temple was not in order and service had discontinued the Inam was resumed and the fule beriz was added to the Jodi village

'Shamiayan's Kyphiyat' dt 16.10.1911) The petitioner seems to have been a minor then and when he came of age, he repaired the temple and continued the puje. On this, the Jodidar in Hariyar Sadharana made the Khata of the land in the name of Sri Anjaneya and has been receiving the Jodi and local cess from the temple agency ever since. The Jodidar had leased the land to one Nudda basavia while the land was in his (Jodidar's) possession. The petitioner alleges that when the Khata was transferred to the Anjaneya devaru, the lessee was ordered to continue to pay the gutta to the temple and to give up the land to the temple on the expiry of the lease. Subsequently, the

2 Jodidar sold to the lessee and another Dyavia two of his lands. He has however written to the Taluk stating that, in writing out the document ofec of the Vendees Dyavra clandestinely substituted the Inam land instead of the Jodidar's own land - The Jodidar is now willing to refund the sale amount or to exchange his own land for the Inam land. But the vendees are not willing either to receive the amount or to Exchange the land.

Archak Shanmugam then applied to this Office for help - In submitting the file of papers, the Amildar recommended that as the Inam was not sthal but jari, resumed for failure of service, it was a fit case for the consideration of Government. The then Deputy Commissioner in his order No 477 dated 14-5-12 decided that the case did not seem to call for Government interference. Hence the present appeal.
